(b) whether Government have received complaints regarding making of ration cards of some of them and entering their names in voter lists; and

(c) what is the number of Bangladeshis deported from India during the last two years and their number from Rajasthan?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI I.D. SWAMI): (a) It is difficult to identify Bangladeshi nationals living illegally because they are able to mingle easily with the local population due to ethnic and linguistic similarities.

(b) Reports of certain touts and other negative elements assisting in the process of illegal infiltration and forging documents to enable such illegal migrants to claim Indian citizenship have been received from time to time.

(c) The yearwise figures of deportation is as follows:—

1998	6659
1999 (upto 20 Nov. 1999)	5880

As per available information 10 Bangladeshi nationals were deported from Rajasthan during 1998.
